

FG FINANCIAL PENSIONS & INVESTMENTS

FG FINANCIAL PREFERRED INCOME FUND

QUARTERLY REPORT FOR THE PERIOD ENDED MARCH 31, 2011

Investment Objective

FG Financial Preferred Income Fund is a fixed income Fund that aims to provide the highest possible level of return while still maintaining liquidity and preserving capital. The Fund seeks to provide stable returns to unit holders in excess of average term deposit rates

Investment Strategy

FG Financial Preferred Income Fund invests predominantly in government bonds and bank deposits but enhances its yield through investing in a diversified portfolio of mortgages, preference shares and corporate bonds. Its emphasis is on principal protection and constant income generation.

The Fund carries a low level of risk to the investor based primarily on investment in a combination of short-term financial instruments and government guaranteed securities.

First Quarter 2011 Review

FG Financial Preferred Income Fund closed the first quarter with a net asset value (NAV) per share of $1.1608, providing a return of 1.25%, outperforming benchmark returns of 1.00% by 25 basis points over the same period. The Fund yielded 12-month returns of 5.20%, again beating out its benchmark, the weighted average bank term deposit rate by 188 basis points, which reported returns of 3.33%. The Fund's average annualized yield since inception approximates 5.36%, compared to its benchmark, which reflected average annualized returns of 3.65% over the same period.

The Fund has continued to provide principal protection and has attracted investors seeking lower levels of risk in order to safeguard their investments from exposure to the volatility of the equities market. From inception, the Fund has provided stable returns to participants in excess of average term deposit rates, and as a result has continued to experience substantial growth. Year-to-date, net assets available to shareholders increased by approximately $206,000 attributable to net subscriptions of $153,000 and net investment income of $53,000. During the quarter, our available funds were channeled into investments in government bonds and term deposits at attractive market rates.

Our long-term objectives remain the same...maximizing fund participant returns at an acceptable level of risk.
